Beautification Progresses in Charlton

Stage 2 of the Beautify Charlton Project stepped up a notch during June with the removal of the desert ash trees along the Mildura Way (northern) entrance to the town.

The anticipated two-day extraction, undertaken by the Ballarat based company, Skyrider Tower Hire, saw workers Neville Williams and Matthew Peterken hard at work first thing on Day 1.

The project, initiated by the sub-committee of the Charlton-based North Central Garden Club, has already seen the fruits of their labour take shape with the spring burgeoning of last year's replantings along the High Street entrance to the town.

Beautify Charlton spokesperson, Robin McRae, said that the 3 Stage project has seen a lot happen quickly over the past two years, for which he gave credit to the strong support from both the community and the Buloke Shire.

Both the financial and community input has enabled the vision of building an appealing presentation of the town to take place - an outcome which Robin said furthers the prospect of both the relevance and liveability of our country communities.

As Stage 2 unfolds, the tree replacement is anticipated to start in mid July.

The Eastern side of the highway from Dew's Lane (near the railway line) to the Lizard Roadhouse is to feature the slender Prunus Oakville Crimson Spire – chosen for its compatibility with the narrow nature-strip and height limitation under the powerlines, while the western side will showcase the ornamental pears – Aristocrat and the more compact Korean Sun closer to Clifton Street.

Tree selection has been determined not just for visual impact, but also from a practical standpoint of avoiding unsightly pruning into the future.

The retention of a large Kurrajong and a Flowering Gum will be the only variation in the new planting regime.

Speaking passionately about the project, Robin said, "In the coming months the focus will turn to Stage 3, which involves renewed town signage and a full introduction to the Charlton Notables concept. As we have done before, we will be looking for full community input, and will be promoting the way forward through the various media outlets."

"The past decade has seen Charlton achieve so many things following the trauma of the 2011 flood, and this Beautify Charlton project is another important addition and a further example of what a big-hearted community this is."

Above: Beautify Charlton committee members were on hand to witness the commencement of the second stage as the project moves to the Mildura Way entrance to the town. Pictured (l-r) are Sue McLean, Bernice Kenny, Robin McRae (project spokesperson) and Lori Mills with two-year-old, Shepherd. (Absent members: Sue Walsh and Amy Nicolson).

Above: The reduction of tree waste was fast and efficient as Skyrider Tower Hire workers (l) Neville Williams and (r) Matthew Peterken removed the desert ash from the Mildura Way nature-strip frontages. The resulting mulch will be available for community use.

Hello everyone,

Welcome to the July edition of the Community Newsletter. It's surprising how we still manage to fill the pages.

At this stage most community events for the foreseeable future have been cancelled or postponed. It's going to be a quiet winter and spring with limited winter sport and many of the usual spring events on hold. We have seen many travellers passing through the town as well as visitors staying at the caravan park and other accommodation. Whilst this is very good for our local businesses, we are just a little protective of our zero Covid-19 status. However as many of us have family and friends in Melbourne, we can only hope that the worst passes soon.

There is a new patchwork and quilting shop in town and the new bakery owners appear to be coping with taking on a new business in these difficult times. And our pubs are open again for business which is a relief for those sick of their own cooking.

Both our boys will be back in online uni mode in Melbourne soon. Who knows when we'll see them next, as we won't be encouraging a visit home any time soon. These certainly are strange times.

Cheers

Carolyn

Special Birthdays

Charlton golfing ladies, Pat Mathews and Marj Bartlett, have amassed 160 years between them in recent times.

Both ladies were honoured with a special afternoon tea after the first round of the Golf Ladies Club Championships last Wednesday.

President Chris McGurk, presented them with their "OBES". Pat celebrated her 80th birthday on 21st April, when everything was in lockdown. Her golfing friends organized a morning "exercise" session, where they walked (or rode) in pairs past Pat's front fence, which had been decorated with balloons and a birthday banner. After adhering to a strict timetable the ladies wished Pat a happy day and continued on their way.

Marj celebrated her special birthday on June 21st. For Marj the Golf Clubhouse was again able to be used and the usual cake, candles and flowers were all part of the celebrations.

Marj and Pat have both been respected members of the Golf Club for many years. Pat is a Life Member and Marj has been the ladies' secretary for the past ten years. Best wishes to both ladies and good hitting for your golf seasons ahead.

Communities Benefit From Community Bank Grants

Eight community groups in the Charlton, Birchip, Boort and Wycheproof areas have received grants as part of the Charlton & District Community Grants Program 2020.

Jon Whykes, Chairman of North Central Financial Services Limited (NCFS), the company which operates the Charlton & District Community Bank, said the grants would be used to carry out improvements and projects which would benefit these communities. These four communities are all serviced by the Community Bank.

"This year's successful grants totalled $88,048," Jon said.

Grant recipients include:

- Boort Bowls Club – shade structure – $2,068
- Boort Lakeside Croquet Club – renovation of clubrooms - $10,000
- Charlton A & P Society – portable stage – $11,480
- Charlton Bowling Club – air-conditioning - $5,000
- Charlton Golden Grains Museum – new photocopier - $3,500
- Charlton Golf Club – new golf cart shed – $10,000
- Charlton Neighbourhood House – indigenous art project – Challenge grant of $20,000 which will become available if further funding is obtained for this project
- Wycheproof Pre School – outdoor storage shed - $20,000.

Since opening in 2003, Charlton & District Community Bank has returned more than $1,300,000.00 to the towns serviced by the bank.

"We were very impressed with the quality of applications received and are delighted to be able to support a range of projects, many of which may not have been financially viable without the support of our Community Bank," Jon said. "The grants program is administered by Community Enterprise Foundation™, the philanthropic arm of Bendigo and Adelaide Bank. The partnership with the Foundation enables local community organisations to share in our success."

"We aim to support accessible and valued community services and partnerships leading change which strengthen and unite our communities."

"There are currently more than 291 Community Bank branches across Australia which have returned $100 million to support local communities."

"These grants have only been made possible through the support of you, our customers, so thank you all for that continued support" Mr Whykes added. "The more individuals and organisations that bank with us, then the more we are able to give back to our four communities. Our friendly staff, led by manager Glenden Watts, will be happy to assist you with all your financial and banking needs."

Charlton Men's Golf

With people out of Covid 19 lockdown, Wednesday golf has had almost 20 men playing the 12 hole competition. On Wednesday, 3rd June, Phil Stafford had 63-20-43 to be the clear winner. However Phil's great score was blindsided by the news of John Headon breaking his putter. John is easily Charlton's best putter. John's putter is known as Wanda because we all "wanda" how anyone can belt the ball with a putter from 100 meters out and get the ball onto the sand. John was devastated, explaining that he bought the putter 39 years ago when he started playing golf.

On Saturday, 6th June, 17 golfers played Stableford. All scores are 2-3 points lower with the new handicap system.

Ian Jenkins had the best score with 34 points. He was followed by Brett Schofield with 33 and Benno Catherine 32 points

Junior golf is each Sunday morning at 10.30. Ring Clinton Olive 0409860336 for more information.

Saturday golf is 12.30 hit off.

"ODE TO WANDA"

With raw emotion, John gripped that broken putter and cried;

For nigh 40 years, Wanda has been by my side.

Together we embraced the great game, and there our affair, it began;

Wanda I was struck by your beauty, you'd have won the heart of any young man.

We've been north, we've gone south, we've been right around Australia;

We've played in sunshine and rain, you've seen all my regalia.

She helped me win pennant, Wanda was there by my side;

We've won B grade championships, those cups are my pride.

I've had 2 holes in one, Wanda watched and shared in my joy;

And whenever in trouble, she was the club I'd deploy.

From deep in the rough or from any bad lie; It was to Wanda I turned and was on Wanda, I'd rely.

In green side bunkers, where fancy golfers use loft to defend;

I simply called on Wanda, then rolled the ball out the end.

John lowered his head and asked could Wanda be repaired;

Could she be restored once again and her life then be spared.

Could she be welded or bronzed, or perhaps even glued;

Or could she be braced or bolted, or should she be screwed.

As we told stories of Wanda and shared a drink at her wake;

John bravely talked of a new putter, perhaps a hickory shaft that wouldn't break.

As we all left for our homes, we wished John well in his quest;

In his search for a new putter, having laid Wanda to rest.

Charlton Netball Club

The Charlton Netball Club committee has been working hard behind the scenes to get junior netballers back out on court. Virtual meetings have been held to work through the protocols and guidelines outlined by Netball Victoria. Shire and Parks permission has been sought and we are pleased to have had our juniors back training for two weeks now. After interest from junior players and permission from parents, CNC is now looking to be involved in competitive matches against other North Central teams.

Maddison Fitzpatrick returns to Netball Victoria On Court Talent Academy Training

The Netball Victoria Talent Academy, like all other netball programs was halted due to COVID-19. During isolation Maddi undertook monthly training programs supplied by the academy program and also undertook specialist programs via Zoom with Melbourne Vixens and Australian Diamonds athletes, Caitlin Thwaites, Liz Watson and Jo Western. Last Saturday Maddi returned to the court with fellow academy participants and was coached by former Kestrels' defensive coach, and last year's assistant coach of the Adelaide Thunderbirds, Cathy Fellows.

New $325,000 Grant for Charlton Park

Charlton Park 2020 Inc have received news of their success with an application for funding in the most recent Building Better Regions Fund round of funding. The grants were announced by Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Infrastructure, Transport and Regional Development Michael McCormack recently.

“These projects will go a long way towards building confidence and creating jobs and local procurement in areas that need it most. Regional Australia has withstood one of the most devastating bushfire seasons, floods and now a global pandemic – to say they’ve been hit hard in recent times, is an understatement,” Mr McCormack said.

“Their strength and spirit will lead Australia’s recovery through grass-roots projects – creating jobs, boosting local economies and growing confidence in regional communities as a great place to live, work and invest. We have seen great outcomes from the first three rounds of the BBRF and today’s announcement will build on that by funding critical local infrastructure projects. All Round 4 projects will strengthen our local economies and drive much-needed job creation, with thousands of jobs expected to be supported throughout regional Australia – delivering career pathways and enabling people to stay in the very communities in which they grew up.”

Chairman of Charlton Park 2020, John Harley, said he was delighted with the news. “The funding will go a long way towards completing the second main stage of the works at Charlton Park.”

The main items covered by the grant include:

- The carpark and road to the south and west of the main building which wasn’t able to be funded when the building was constructed.
- A number of the infrastructure projects in the grant will benefit the Charlton Harness Racing Club.
- The removal of the old machinery and equipment sheds which will be rebuilt over on the back track. This will house the water trucks, mobile barrier vehicle and other vehicles owned by the Harness Racing Club and housed in the one shed.
- Relocation and construction of a new veterinary room and a new equine wash and urinal facility.
- Construction of some new covered horse stalls to replace some that were lost in the development of the new building. These will be placed at the eastern end of the complex.
- The construction of a new fence along the side of the netball area to add to the old playground and to provide necessary wind protection to this newly developed area.

There is one piece of infrastructure remaining to be completed in this area – a multi-purpose facility to provide horse stalls and a wool display area for the Charlton A. & P. Society. This was the subject of a recent unsuccessful A. & P. grant – so that remains on the list. It is hoped that this will be completed with further funding in the near future.

Charlton Harness Racing Club President, Joe Thompson, said he was very pleased to also receive the great news. “This funding will go a long way towards the redevelopment of the harness racing precinct. We have received great support from Harness Racing Victoria both for this project but also for our plans to develop further the harness training facilities in the south-east corner of the town.

The relocation of the sheds will enhance the facilities over there and will attract new trainers to our town, so enhancing the economic redevelopment of Charlton” Joe added.

This work will add to the already completed new grandstand viewing area and the lawn areas developed to the north and east of the harness racing complex. “I want to acknowledge the great work undertaken by Randall Perry and Wes Jenkyn in redeveloping this area. We just need Covid19 restrictions to be eased so that the public can come across and enjoy these new facilities,” Joe said.

Charlton Park 2020 Chairman, John Harley praised the work of Kaylene Cossar, who was instrumental in developing the grant applications. “Kaylene is our “grants guru” and we thank her for her continuing work on behalf of the committee.”

It is expected that work will commence in the next few months.

CHARLTON HARNESS RACING CLUB NEWS

REGIONAL RACING EXPANDS

Whilst there is still no racing here in Charlton local trainers have at least a little more choice as regional racing zones have expanded. Formerly only allowed to compete at the Bendigo track, Charlton floats are now headed to Cranbourne, Kilmore and Shepparton.

Harness Racing Victoria has juggled many aspects of the industry and worked meticulously to ensure that participants have been able to continue to race and effectively stay employed throughout the last few months, when many other sports have ceased to operate. It is a real credit to everyone who has followed the strict protocols put in place on race and trial days which has ensured that racing has been continuous during this challenging and ever changing period.

We hope that with sustained mindfulness of Victoria's escalating situation, the industry can continue to manage well in the weeks ahead.

ON A BRIGHTER NOTE....

There has been some exciting action at the Charlton Training Centre this week as Michael Gadsden has arrived from Ararat to begin his tenure here in Charlton. How fantastic to see the yards filling up with horses and the traffic on the training track increase of a morning.

We wish him and Denbeigh every success and know that they will be a great acquisition to the training ranks here.

TIPPING COMP CONTINUES....

Lucky Lockdown 2 has completed Round 3 and has kept our members engaged and entertained over the last two months.

With 172 people testing their skill, or lack of, it has been terrific to see newcomers to the social punting aspect of racing having a go and following along their tips on the nominated nights. Thanks to President, Joe Thompson, who gives a comprehensive wrap up on the club Facebook page, along with some obligatory fun. A special mention to Lisa Perry and Hayley Soulsby who happily give up quite a few hours to help collate all of the results.

Jason Frankum has skipped away at the top of the leaderboard and seems unbeatable as we head in to the final round, and the wheels have completely fallen off anyone who has Thompson for a last name!!! Too many duck eggs to mention!

Charlton Probus

Dear Members,

July is winter and there have been very cold nights and mornings, heavy white frosts from 0 to minus 3. A good reason to stay in bed, but by midday it becomes a beautiful sunny day.

Remember when we were kids having fun breaking the ice on the puddles at school and having wet shoes and socks all day, but nobody got seriously sick. We sure did have a strong constitution.

Happy Birthday to all our July Members.

Please remember our members who are having health problems, we wish you all the best.

The Coronavirus has reared its ugly head again, so practise good hygiene, never give up, never despair, keep your chin up and stay strong.

Loneliness can be very stressful so please phone your buddy for a talk or visit.

Unfortunately there will be no Probus in July. I hope to meet you all in August.

Take care, have faith, till we meet again. God Bless,
Eily, Probus President
2020.

Golden Grains Museum News

Hello, welcome to the July edition of Museum news. We had a crack at reopening the museum for a couple of weeks but with the resurgence of Covid-19, we have decided to close again for the foreseeable future. We are still available to conduct family history research.

We are also still busy behind the scenes cataloguing. We have a very important inspection in November for accreditation with the Australian Galleries and Museums Association looming and there is still plenty to do.

Thank you to everyone who took a number in our Lotto fundraiser. If you missed out, let one of our members know and we'll make sure to contact you next time.

We were very fortunate to receive a Bendigo Community Bank grant of $3500 to upgrade our photocopier. This is an essential piece of equipment used for digitising our records. Our new copier will keep us going for many years.

The Interesting Life of George Henry Botterill.

The recent discovery of a Court Summons (pictured) for George Henry Botterill in 1882, led our Secretary, Carolyn Olive, on a journey to discover George's story.

George Henry Botterill was born in Brompton, Yorkshire in about 1824 to parents William, a carpenter, and his wife Rachel. George married Mary Buckle, a milliner, in 1854. He emigrated to Victoria in about 1857 but left Mary behind for a number of years. Mary eventually joined George in Victoria and they made their way to Skipton where George worked as a builder.

George fell on hard times in 1869 and applied for bankruptcy with over £500 in debts. Mary passed away in 1877, aged 54, and George decided to leave the district. He had obviously landed on good times again as his property listed for auction included a six-roomed weatherboard cottage on 10 acres of land, quality furnishings, contractor's tools, poultry and a cow.

George eventually made his way to Charlton. In 1881 he built the Charlton Tribune Office and was credited for his fine work. In 1882 he was awarded the tender to erect a timber fence around the original weatherboard Catholic Church in Learmonth Street. However, despite George successfully conducting a business, life again appears to get the better of him and he is accused of assaulting Frank Henry Tucker and is issued with a Summons. The court proceedings were reported in the Charlton Tribune.

"Charlton Police Court, August 23, 1883. Before G. H. Foreman Esq and Dr Dean, J.Ps. Tucker v Bottrell - Charge of unlawful assault. Defendant did not put in an appearance. The plaintiff who is a quiet and respectable young resident of the town, stated that he is a carpenter by trade, and that a fortnight since he went to the place to speak to a man who was then in the latter's employ. The defendant came out, when the complainant said "good afternoon" to him. Defendant did not speak, but lifted his fist and struck complainant on the mouth, causing blood to flow. Thought that defendant would have said something about some money that was due to him (complainant). He (complainant) did not give defendant any provocation, nor did the latter order him off the premises. Defendant called him "a mean skank." Samuel Carbis, who claimed expenses before giving evidence, said he remembered 26th July last, and being in Mr Botrell's workshop. Did not see defendant strike complainant, but saw blood on the face of the latter; he took it very quietly. The bench considered that a most unprovoked assault had been committed, and fined defendant £5, with £2 6s costs; in default, month's imprisonment." (East Charlton Tribune 25/08/1883)

It is unknown whether George paid the fine or did his time as he was never seen in Charlton again. At one point, it was feared that a man found drowned in the Yarra River was in fact George Botterill. It was known locally that he had fallen on hard times. However, two gentlemen who personally knew George (ironically one of them was the aforementioned victim, Frank Tucker), were unable to identify his body. An open verdict of "found drowned" was given by the jury and the deceased was never formally identified. Was the body that of George Botterill?

George's property in Charlton was sold at auction by the Supreme Court at Sharman's Globe Hotel on 23rd January 1884. The sale of the block created considerable local interest and was purchased by Mr C. Procter for £222. Robert Procter and his son Christopher ran a butcher shop in High Street and had already built a two-storey brick building in which they operated. They would utilize this land to erect two additional brick buildings beside it (now apartments between the Rex Theatre and House to Home).

We now know the drowned man wasn't George Botterill. After 26 years in Victoria, George actually made his way to New South Wales. Here he quite possibly continued to work in his trade, but sadly by the early 1890s, was again doing it tough. He was admitted to the Liverpool Asylum where he eventually died on the 27th May, 1900, aged 78. George was buried in a pauper's grave in the Church of England Cemetery in Liverpool. Interestingly, Mary's death certificate states she had no children, whilst George's lists one daughter (age unknown) and three males deceased. As concerns across Victoria rise about the current spike of COVID-19 cases in Melbourne hotspots, we here in Charlton have continued with our safe practices to limit the spread of the virus.

As we go forward over the coming months, we must continue to observe the Government's advice on gatherings, social distancing and hand hygiene. Only leave home when necessary, and consult your GP if you show any symptoms.

What does this mean for our Neighbourhood House? With the requirements for physical distancing, sanitising and precautionary measures we will not be reopening to the public at the present time. We encourage those who require any face to face assistance from the Neighbourhood House to call 0473759456 to make an appointment. Printing, laminating, community car bookings, etc, are still available as usual. Do what you need to remain safe and healthy, and ask if you need assistance.

Shop Local – 3525 – 365

Shop local. It's a message we hear often, but now it really does make a difference. Call a local business and see what services they are providing or what hours they are open.

Local businesses are committed to our community and have gone through some tough times recently. At this time, as we all look out for one another, remember our shopkeepers and businesses and do whatever you can to support them. Every little bit helps.

Calling all qualified service providers.

Is there a course you would like to deliver to our community? Whether it's a health or well being, a trade skill or Certificate Course we want to hear from you. The Charlton Neighbourhood House can facilitate you and members of the community as we go forward into the future post COVID-19.

Concession Card Holders, do you know that you may be able to get assistance with your non-mains energy bills such as LPG or Firewood? Application Forms now at CNH.

Charlton Neighbourhood House is pleased to announce that the DHHS has now made us an independent organisation rather than the previous auspice arrangement under the Charlton Forum. The Committee is very grateful for the Forum's support since planning started in June 2018 and are looking forward to our future.

Other great news is that we have been awarded $20,000 from the Charlton Community Bendigo Bank to use as a community contribution to the Creative Arts 'Arts Activation Rd 2' Grant. This project will be based around First People's Art concept that was suggested by Sue Walsh and Marea Judd many years ago. A huge thank you to Bendigo Bank Board and fingers crossed we are successful. Any ideas can be submitted to us and more details will be available in the future.

Work has been continuing supporting local business and organizations in various ways and our services continue to be available for anyone in the community. Surveys were recently sent out via email to clubs and organizations, and if you haven't yet completed one, we encourage you to. Don't forget the great initiative by the Charlton Chamber of Commerce and Industry offering one year's free membership, and their survey tracking how businesses are coping. If you have any queries about the Chamber contact Troy Heenan at the Charlton Newsagency.

We are looking to again being able to offer face to face courses in the near future and welcome suggestions about what you would like to see delivered. Our popular craft and cooking related courses are hopefully going to be up and running soon as well as possible technology classes. Phone or text the Neighbourhood House with your ideas of what you would like to see happening in Charlton. Our phone number is 0473-759 456.

Like many Neighbourhood Houses across the Mallee, we still do not have our doors open for visitors. Work goes on behind the scenes and we are available by appointment to assist with any of your needs.

Charlton P-12 College

During the last month students have returned to learning on site, which has been a joyous occasion. Staff are very pleased to see students face to face and students are extremely happy to be back learning and playing with their friends.

Above: Years 5 & 6 first day back.

Above: Foundation-One Bug Eyes

Above: Our kitchen work has looked a lot different, as we have not been sharing what we make.

Charlton P-12 College

To finish off 'Reconciliation Week' students listened to and discussed the words of the Warumpi Band song: 'Black fella White fella'. They talked about valuing the differences and similarities of all people, regardless of hair, skin or eye colour and that 'Stronger Together' means that we can solve problems and get more done. A quote from Uncle Banjo Clarke: Everyone is beautiful like the flowers in your garden."

Above: Students looked at signs and symbols used by Aboriginal people to show pathways from one water source to another, and created their own sign for water in sand.

Above: New Family Member—Fizzy has been going it alone since the end of last year. We recently acquired a new friend for Fizzy. Students were very excited and put name suggestions forward, one name was a standout favourite, and that was Ginger. So our new guinea pig is called Ginger.

Dragon Boat Festival

The 5th day of the 5th month of the Chinese lunar calendar is the Dragon Boat Festival! This is a traditional Chinese festival that commemorates the death of one of the greatest Chinese poets - Qu Yuan - and is celebrated by dragon boat racing and eating sticky rice dumplings (Zong Zi).

Beautify Charlton July Update

Just a brief report for July.

Yes the trees have been removed from Mildura Way and we are hopeful planting will not be too far away!

Watering in the summer months will continue to take place and that will mean early on in 2021 and 2022 Stages 1 and 2 will be progressively complete.

Some tentative steps at Committee level are now being taken on Stage 3, specifically Town Signage and Charlton's Notables.

Remain aware of Facebook updates, local town promotion spots and the Newsletter over the coming months. It is vital the Committee receives community feedback.

For the August edition, assuming planting is complete, we will be acknowledging once more those groups who have made this community enterprise financially possible and for those wishing to make a contribution will publicise the method for tax deductible donations to assist with Stage 3.

Spokesperson on the project for the Garden Club is Robin McRae 0400 522 700.

Stay healthy everyone in these challenging times.

REX THEATRE COVID 19 UPDATE

With the change to Covid 19 restrictions the Rex is keen to keep the wider community updated on our current status.

Due to a number of factors it is not viable for the cinema to return to operation just yet.

With Hollywood withholding new film releases until the world market is stronger, the reduction in number of attendees, and with concern for the safety of our patrons and volunteers, the Rex Board is undertaking a month by month review of the situation and will keep the community informed through updates on our digital media platforms and through the local press.

While we regret the ongoing delay and understand the community's desire to return to normality it is essential that continued health compliance and availability of product are in hand before we re-open.

We thank you for your patience, and look forward to soon welcoming you back to the Rex.

Preliminary Notice

Lions Club of Charlton is intending to reproduce the Local Large Print Phone Directory for Charlton residents, businesses and surrounds in 2021

This directory will be completely new and registration forms will need to be filled in to be included in this directory as a lot of details have changed.

All Businesses will be contacted for inclusion in the Business Directory which will include the White Pages Section.

Only phone, mobile and fax numbers will be accepted.

We request that First names and Surnames be used instead of Initials and this will be on the registration forms and preferred to be more personal.

Keep an eye out next month for more details

The Charlton Agricultural & Pastoral Society has decided this year to cancel its Show which would have been held on October 17th.

This has not been an easy decision for the committee to make, but in light of the Covid-19 restrictions, this was the only option.

The committee felt it was in the best interest to make the decision now rather than later. As we rely on the amazing support of our local community and loyal sponsors, we realise there may be some strain on both during this time.

The Agricultural and Pastoral Society is looking forward to organising and bringing you our 140th year show in 2021.

Thank you

President Murray McLean

Secretary Wendy Laffin

No Jazz in July this year!

Due to the re-tightening of Covid regulations Charlton Arts won't be able to host Jazz in July at The Rex on July 17 as planned.

We had hoped to be able to use another venue when The Rex said they were not opening at this stage but current audience numbers won't be lifted until after that date.

We'd also hoped that we'd be able to say with confidence that three of the Cafe Culture shows would go ahead but there may also be changes to the Cafe Culture program for 2020. We'll keep you posted on that front too.

St Martin's Messenger

Welcome!!!

Bible reading: Matthew 10:40-42

[Jesus said], 'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me'. (verse 40)

It is school holidays again and I have heard that many parents home schooling have had to refresh their mental arithmetic skills. I thought that I could probably benefit from a refresh too. To that end when I was reading the above bible verse, I found that in this sentence:

The word "Whoever" is repeated twice (2)

The word "Welcomes" is repeated four times (4)

The word "You" is stated once (1)

The word "Me" is repeated three times (3)

The phrase "The One" is stated once (1)

$2 \times 2 = 4$ $4 - 1 = 3$ $3 + 1 = 4$

So back to the words – hey, if you say the sentence quickly it could be a tongue twister!!!

But if we go the other way and slow it down, and think about the meaning of each word and then how the sentence is structured, it provides some really handy advice.

"Whoever" means anyone is up to this task, anyone can do it, no barriers or restrictions, anyone

"Welcomes" is a verb, an action and an outpouring of love, just like that modelled by Jesus

"You" means the recipient, if we are welcomed by someone, this is just as Jesus would want to be welcomed

"Me" means Jesus

"the One" means God

So if we replace the words with those above, it turns out like this:

"Anyone welcoming you (insert your name here), welcomes Jesus, and anyone welcoming Jesus welcomes God, who sent Jesus, His Son."

So, in waving, greeting, talking, or offering even a cold cup of water, to someone, means that ANYONE can welcome. You may think it is a small gesture, but to Jesus and to God, it is the greatest gift.

Welcome – it makes you feel better just saying it, doesn't it!

North Central Garden Club

Hello to all, As these uncertain times continue the Garden Club will not be meeting in July.

At the present time we will be looking at the Spring time for our next gathering. The frosty mornings have been severe, one consolation is a sunny day is assured. Plant out a punnet or two of Pansies for a spot of colour. The orange trees are fruiting well so keep up the vitamin C. Pick and dry your herbs for later use. Keep warm. Sue

Charlton Bowling Club

Hello bowlers, another month done and things are moving forward with a step back here and there. Hopefully everyone is staying safe and taking care of themselves.

Saturday afternoon bowls is still on even though it is getting colder. Our opening day is the 13th September with our AGM to be held on the 20th September, not all that far away so get your thinking caps on as to which way we are going. There are possible changes to our Division and Region but they are still works in progress, and will not be finalised for a little while. Hopefully we will know a lot more by September.

Sometime in the next month we will have a working bee in preparation for the Opening. Members will be emailed when arrangements have been made.

Take care and catch you all on the green. Patty.
